OTM Events Hits St. Louis

An Exclusive, Invitation Only Halloween Bash for Couples

After the recent explosion of media coverage regarding high-profile athletes and infidelity, the trials and tribulations that appear to come with the territory of being married to a pro athlete is no secret to the greater population. Tia Robbins (wife of St. Louis Rams defensive tackle Fred Robbins), Jasmine Silva (fiancé of St. Louis Rams safety James Butler), and Jerika Johnstone (wife of former NFL Oakland Raiders and Minnesota Vikings player Lance Johnstone) came together to create the company Off The Market in July 2009. "After the tremendous success we had with our launch event in New York City, I'm excited to bring Off The Market Events to St. Louis," said Robbins. "I know that couples will have a memorable experience at this event in addition to the others that will take place nationwide in the near future," she added.

Off The Market, in conjunction with production company Synergy, is hosting an exclusive, invitation only, Halloween Bash for couples on October 31st, 2010 at Mandarin Lounge (44 Maryland Plaza, St. Louis, MO 63108) from 8 PM – 12 AM (CST).

In attendance will be members of the St. Louis Rams, St. Louis Blues, local tastemakers and their significant others who want to support Off The Market's dedication to strengthening the relationships between committed couples.

This special evening will feature Cakn and Bakn cupcakes, a couples costume contest, free personal training session from Brockes Body Works, photography by Wire Image, HOT 104.1's DJ Charlie Chan, and entertainers will be interacting with attendees throughout the evening. The corporate sponsors who are supporting the event and helping to make this evening incredible include A True Spa, Pooka Pure and Simple Natural Hair and Skin Care, Athletes Quarterly Magazine, IceBox Water, Mandarin Lounge and Ylang - Ylang Fine Designer Jewelry, among others.
